My dear Colonel.

I have told Mr. M. A. Narayaniengar to call on you today at 12. P.M.

He is a B.A and B.L. and descendant of Pirmul Rao Pradhan, who did such good service to Mysore during the wars of the English against Tippu. Of the four men suggested by the Dewan, he appears the most suitable in age and manners, and his character is highly spoken of by the Dewan and Madhava Rao. I.G.P. Police. Lastly, I am informed by Kantaraj Urs that his selection meets with "the entire approval" of Her Highness.

It only remains to apply for his services to the Dewan, and I propose to ask for him for two months, (though Raghavendra Rao returns within that period) as a lesser period will hardly give time to judge of his qualifications, in case I want to call him in on a future occasion. His pay as Sumsieff of Yedehalli is Rs 150/- per mensem, and I think it will do if he is given Rs 200 here.

The correct procedure I suppose, is for me to write to you officially requesting you to ~~[illegible]~~ ask the State to lend his services, and this I will do but to save time, and enable him to begin work from tomorrow, a D.O. to the Dewan would suffice meanwhile.

Yours Sincerely
Sd/ S. M. Fraser.

My dear Dewan,

I saw Col Robertson last evening, and he told me that he would be writing to you about lending the services of M. A Narayaniengar for two months. I write this merely to request that he may be considered as transfered to this duty from to-day, July 24th, as, Otherwise, he tells me, his time spent on leave here (about a month) will have to be reckoned as leave without pay. On hearing from you, I will consider him to be under my orders-

Yours Sincerely
sd/ S.M. Fraser-
